

RESOURCES FOR INFORMATION AND PRACTICE

ASL Classes:

- Contact your local Center for Independent Living at <http://www.incil.org/locations.asp> for a list of all 23 CIL's in Illinois.
- Contact local junior colleges, colleges and universities

“Google” these search words:

American Sign Language
Sign Language
ASL

These are good sites for finding signs and practicing:

- <http://www.lifeprint.com/asl101/lessons/lessons.htm>
- www.commtelab.msu.edu/sites/aslweb/browser
- www.lifeprint.com
- www.aslpro.com
- www.asl.ms/ or www.asl.bz

These are good sites for practicing fingerspelling and number comprehension:

- <http://www.lifeprint.com/dictionary.htm>
- <http://www.signingsavvy.com/>

These are good sites for academic signs:

- <http://www.needsoutreach.org/Pages/sl.html>
- <http://www.rit.edu/~w-msse/pages/lexicon/wordlist.php?letter=a> (science signs)

These are good informational sites:

- www.signs-of-development.org
- www.signingonline.com
- These are good sites for downloading graphics and charts:
<http://www.asl.ms/fingerspellingchartprintable2.htm>
- <http://www.coloring-pages-books-for-kids-boys.com/learn-sign-language.html>

More Resources:

- iPOD applications
 - ASL Dictionary <http://downloads.zdnet.com/abstract.aspx?docid=124045>
Talk – to – type AND Type – to – talk
- Use Text feature on phone
- Use Good Ol' Pencil and Paper!