

Using Bagless Therapy to Address Early Intervention Outcomes

Mary-alayne Hughes, Ph.D., UIUC

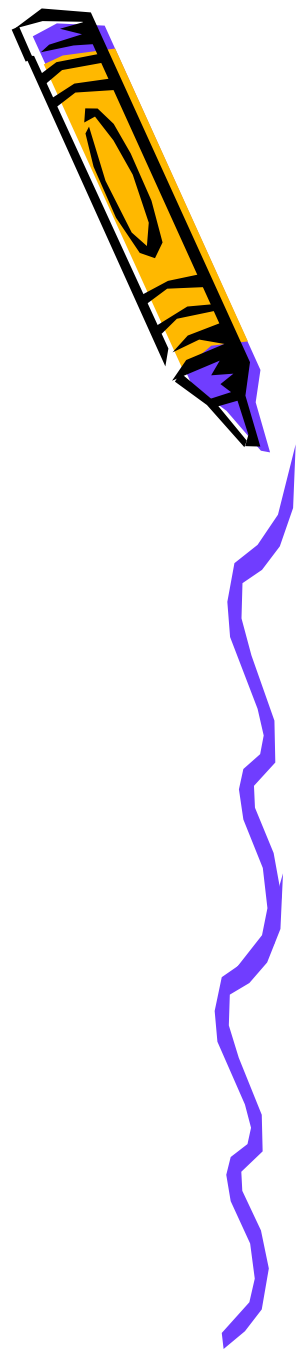

Kimberly Hile, Ed.M., UIUC

Bernadette Laumann, Ph.D., UIUC

SAV Conference, October 2013

Agenda

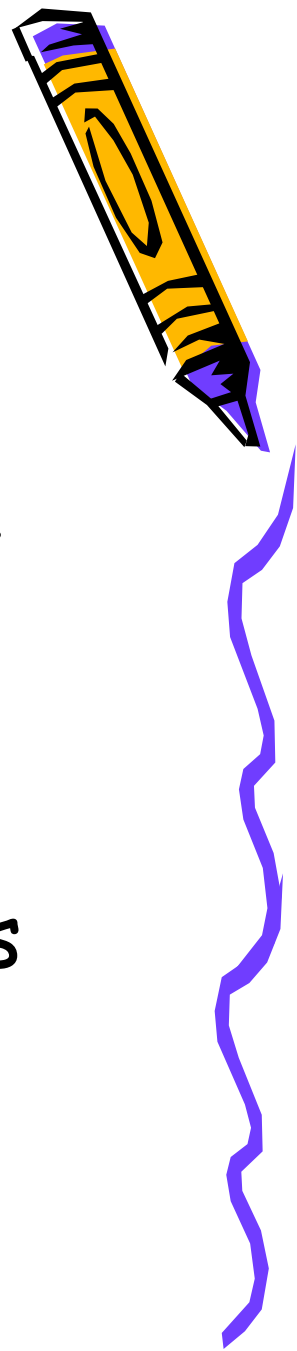

- Introductions
- Session Objectives
- Overview of Major Ideas
- Case Vignettes (group activity)
- Challenges
- Available Resources
- "Back Home" Plan

Session Objectives

Participants will

1. understand & define the concept of bagless therapy
2. identify challenges & benefits
3. practice bagless therapy strategies

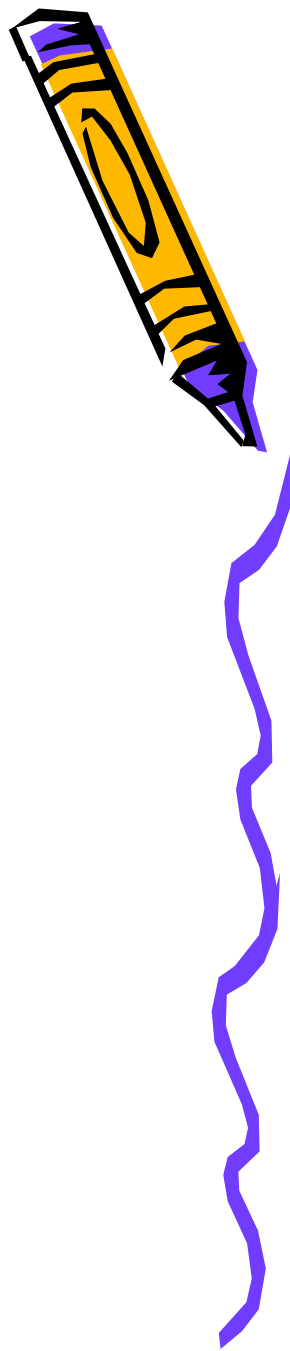

Overview

- *Home visiting

- *Bagless therapy

- *Cultural sensitivity

- *Benefits

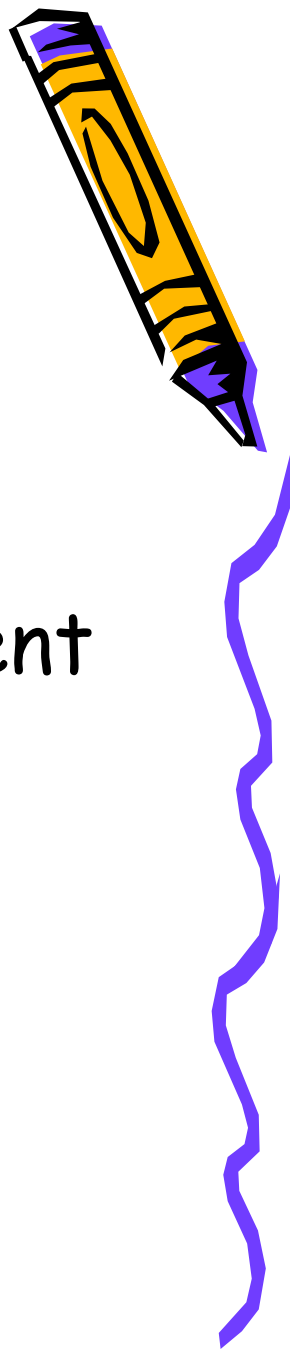

Initial Home Visit

Things to do:

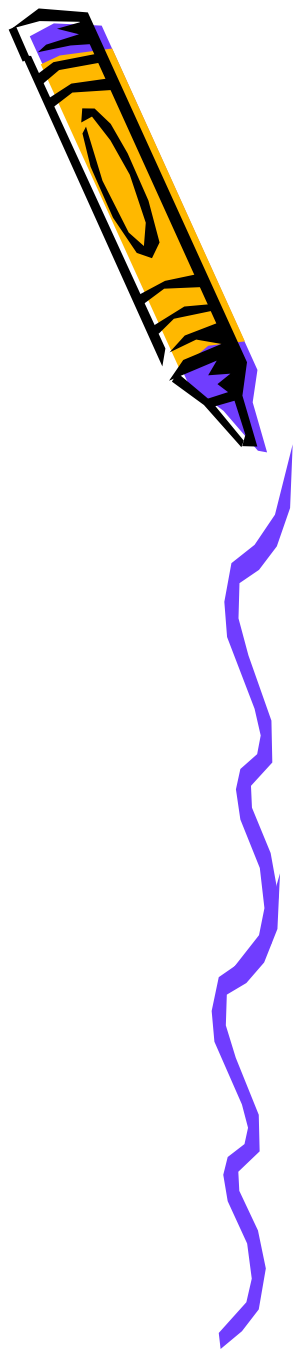

- setting expectations
- informal environmental assessment

Videoclip Example

Common Household Items

(Group Activity & Handout)

Vignettes

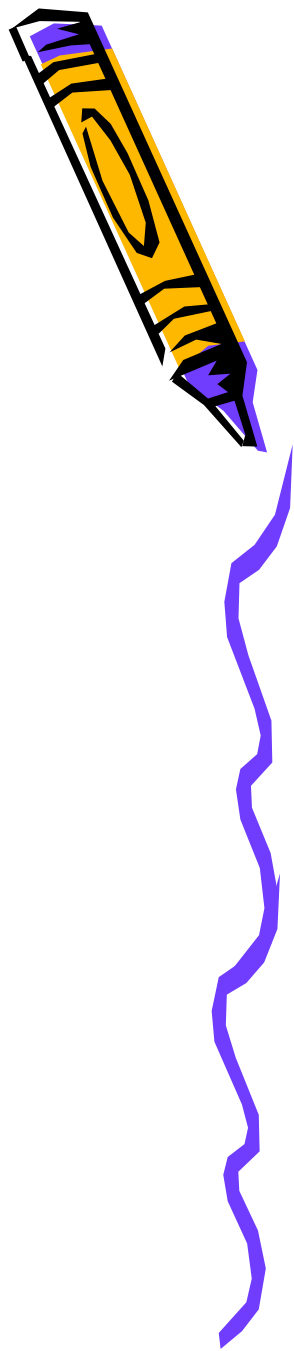

Create 2 routines-based learning activities that address the family's concerns

Discuss how you would use bagless therapy materials in these routines-based learning activities

Challenges & Opportunities

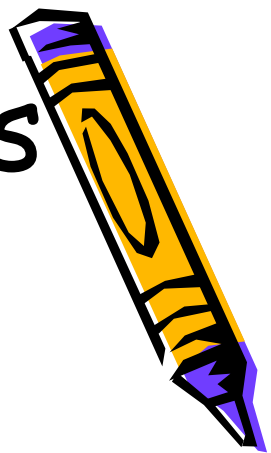

Some Available Resources

*Tots N Tech: <http://tnt.asu.edu>

* Something from Nothing by E. Thompson
(2013; High Scope Press)

*Teresa O'Connor (DT) pinterest site:
<http://pinterest.com/ihelpkids/recycled-toys/>

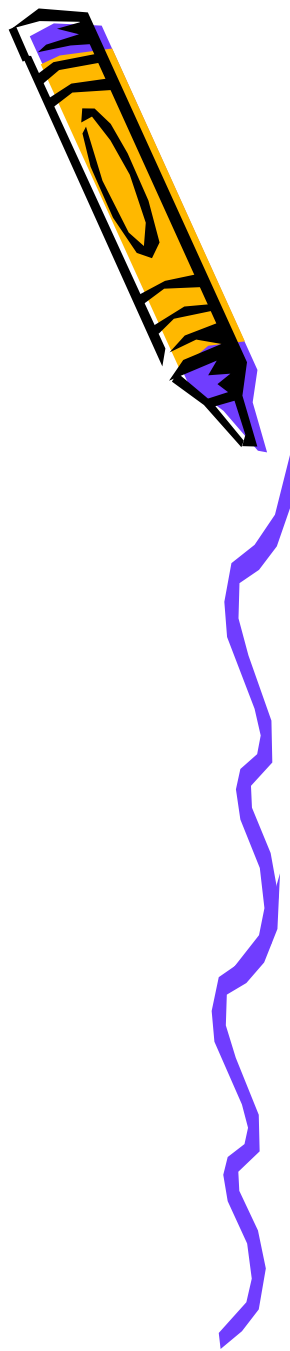

Session Wrap-Up

Questions?

Ideas & Comments to Share

"Back Home" Plan:

1. _____
2. _____

Presenter Contact Info

Mary-alayne Hughes:
mahughes@illinois.edu

Kimberly Hile:
khile@illinois.edu

Bernadette Laumann:
blaumann@illinois.edu

