

Discovering The Leader In You

Sharing The Vision Conference
Springfield, Illinois
September 28, 2015
Presented by: Maurice Sykes

The mediocre teachers tells; the good teacher explains; the great teacher demonstrates; the excellent teacher inspires.

- William Arthur Ward

Discovering the Leader in YOU!!!

Who Are You?

- ◊ How much of your life today is about leadership?
- ◊ Do you see yourself as a leader?
- ◊ How comfortable do you feel in that identity?

Who Are You?

- ◊ Did you actually choose to become a leader?
- ◊ Would you like to be more (or less) of a leader?
- ◊ Do the benefits of leadership outweigh the costs?

CHANGING CONTEXT AND DEMANDS OF LEADERSHIP

- What is the context of your current or potential leadership role?
- What special expectations and realities do leaders face today?
- What views of leadership prevail in your current situation, and what assumptions about leadership do you personally hold?

VISION

- o What is your personal vision and is leadership a part of that vision?
- o Do you also have your own leadership vision?

VALUES

- Are your personal leadership visions based on your own core values?

SELF-AWARENESS

- What personal qualities support your work as a leader and gives your work its own personal style?

BALANCE

- Do you have adequate balance and focus in your life resulting from a good integration between your leadership work and others aspects of your life?

A decorative header featuring a bright yellow sun with a blue circle in the center, partially obscured by stylized blue and white clouds. The background is a solid blue gradient.

The effectiveness and overall performance of a leader is readily critiqued by those that they lead. The skills and character of their performance in the infinite and complex roles that leadership demands contribute to how effectiveness and overall performance are assessed.